PART A NOTICE

If you die before retirement and are married at the time of your death, federal law requires that 100% of your accrued benefit be paid in monthly installments to your spouse as a survivor annuity.

You have the right to make a qualified election to waive the requirement that your spouse be the beneficiary (Part C). However, any such election must be consented to by your spouse and acknowledged before a Notary Public (Part D).

You may revoke the election at any time, but if you thereafter desire to make a new beneficiary election, your spouse must consent to the new election.

If you are not now married, you are required to notify SBERA if you subsequently marry and provide SBERA with the name of your spouse. Your new spouse will automatically become the beneficiary of your pension plan unless you make a qualified election to waive the requirement that your new spouse be beneficiary and such election is consented to by your spouse.

PART E
BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION

I designate the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries in the lowest numbered class (i.e. class 1 – primary beneficiary, class 2 – contingent beneficiary) to receive the value or amounts payable from the SBERA Retirement Plan in the event of my death. This designation revokes any and all designations of beneficiaries heretofore made by me under the plan. Surviving beneficiaries in the same beneficiary class will share equally in death benefit proceeds payable to beneficiaries in that class. If no beneficiary designated below is living at my death, my surviving spouse, if any, otherwise my estate shall be the beneficiary. This change will be effective as of the date hereof. However, any payment made by SBERA before receiving this beneficiary designation shall discharge SBERA to the extent of such payment.

If I am not now married but subsequently marry, this designation shall automatically terminate and my spouse shall become my beneficiary unless I thereafter make a qualified election to waive my spouse as beneficiary and he/she consents to the waiver.

I reserve the right to change my beneficiary designation at any time, provided that if I am married at such time, my spouse must consent to the new beneficiary designation. (Note: class 1 = primary beneficiary, class 2 = contingent beneficiary, etc.)
